A quick guide for hackJam 2016

hackJam 2016

- <http://2016hackjam.devpost.com/>
- Each team should select one team member to prepare and upload the project to devpost

hackJam 2016 - Turning ideas into reality @hkust

Different from any traditional Hackathon, hackJam understands your interests and focus mostly on the technical side. Codes and creativity are what we are looking forward to. Putting aside the business perspective and setting the workable time period to an explosive 6 hours, it is definitely a great opportunity for new comers, and of course the well-experienced, to come and have a taste of our event. Link up with other programmers, brainstorm, discuss, and be innovative!

Add a new project

It is recommended to add to your own portfolio first!

The screenshot shows a portfolio profile for 'hack Jam (2016hackjam)'. The profile header is dark grey with a circular profile picture of a jam jar on the left. The name 'hack Jam (2016hackjam)' is in white text, and 'Edit header design' is in a dark grey button on the right. Below the name, the location 'Hong Kong' is shown with a location pin icon, and a blue link 'Add your skills and bio.' is present. A teal button 'Edit info & settings' is below the bio link. The bottom section is a light grey bar with statistics: '1 PROJECT' (underlined), '1 HACKATHON', '0 FOLLOWERS', '0 FOLLOWING', and '0 LIKES'. A green button 'Add a project to your Portfolio' is on the right.
